

The Harbourmaster's House

The Harbourmaster's House is a B-listed 18th century building, which sits next to Dysart Harbour near Kirkcaldy, Fife. The building houses Fife's first coastal centre, which was opened by Prime Minister Gordon Brown in September 2006.

The Harbourmaster's House is run by Fife Coast and Countryside Trust a registered environmental charity which is responsible for the development and promotion of Fife's countryside. The Trust's headquarters are located on the 1st floor of the building.

The building has been awarded a silver award from the Green Business Tourism scheme and 4 stars from Visit Scotland's Visitors Attraction Scheme.
